A FTER long practical experience, and faith A fully testing a large variety of sewing Machines now before the public, my convictions have forced me to adopt the WHEELER & WILSON Machine as the best for Family, Photation, and general use, over invented. Among the altrantages it possesses over every other Machine, are:

1st. Elegance and simplicity of construction, and consequent freedom from decangement and need of remains. noiseless movement.

3d. Beauty of stitch, firmness of seam, and economy of thread.

4th. Applicability to a variety of purposes and sth. The "Hemmer," an attachment which no other Machine has.
6th. It will sew from one thousand to fifteen hunother Machine man.

6th. It will sew from one thousand so fifteen hundred stitches in a minute, and is equal, in dispatch of work to at least.

The machines, in variety of pattern and style of facish, from the pisiases to the finest parior melodeon attachment, may be seen at my office.
